FORJA TERRACOTTA
COLLECTION

FORJA TERRACOTTA

Inspired by the artistry of traditional wrought iron, the Forja Terracotta Collection celebrates the architectural heritage of handcrafted design.

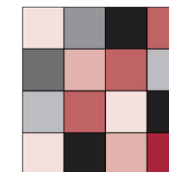

Each 6" × 6" hand-painted terracotta tile forms one quarter of a larger 12" × 12" ornamental composition, allowing intricate patterns to emerge as the tiles are assembled.

Drawing inspiration from the decorative ironwork found on historic gates, balconies, and courtyards, the collection transforms graceful scrolls, floral motifs, and geometric forms into warm terracotta surfaces rich in character. The contrast between natural terracotta and hand-painted ivory detailing creates a timeless aesthetic that complements rustic, Mediterranean, Spanish Colonial, and contemporary interiors alike.

Individually painted by skilled artisans, every tile exhibits subtle variations in color, texture, and brushwork that reflect the authenticity of traditional craftsmanship, making each installation uniquely one of a kind.
