Iris Black Marble Collection

Iris Black is a midnight black stone with all-over white lightning veining. Architectural Digest has stated that black kitchens are in fashion for this year and beyond, while black painted cabinetry for kitchens and baths has never been more on-trend. Adding this timeless stone to any room, either mixed with one of our white marbles or all on its own is a great design choice. The finishes are very hot as well. Both the smooth, matte honed finish and the distressed leather finish impart a contemporary feel to Iris Black field tile, mosaics and moldings. Suitable for all interior vertical, horizontal and wet area applications.
